on phone while travelling by buses or motorbikes.
Most of the incidents involved snatching of mobile phones from passengers, he stated.
As a part of extensive measures, the number of day and nighttime patrols increased last week in Dhaka to check mugging and DB police were also put on alert.
The number of such incidents started declining last week compared to the previous one, he stated.
The DMP has been conducting "special drives" across the capital since Dec 22 to prevent robberies.
He also called upon political parties and pressure groups to use open fields, auditoriums and meeting venues instead of roads to avoid traffic jams in the capital.
