

National dialogue for spl budget all to ensure road sa

FE REPORT

As the road safety issue is totally ignored, speakers at a national dialogue stressed the need for special budget allocation and legal framework reform for strengthening safety-related activities to bring discipline in the road transport sector.

They laid importance on integration and cooperation of all relevant agencies to work under an umbrella for ensuring sustainable development of the sector.

The national dialogue on road safety was held at the conference room of the Bangladesh Road Transport Authority (BRTA) on Saturday.

Chief Adviser's Special Assistant on Road Transport Sheikh Moinuddin was present as the chief guest and BRTA Chairman Mohammad Yasin attended it as special guest.

Road Safety Foundation (RSF) organised the dialogue with its chairman Professor Al Mahbub Uddin Ahmed in the chair.

Representatives from different government agencies and stakeholders including the additional DIG of Highway Police, the director (operations) of Bangladesh Road Transport Corporation and the secretary general of Bangladesh Road Transport Owners Association took part in the event.
